

Senior Cloud Developer

 Antwerpen

Are you looking to grow your career to the next level? Are you a cloud developing fanatic? Look no further! You've found the ideal job!

For a fast growing, dynamic IT company with "silicon valley vibes", we're looking for an experienced Cloud Developer in Antwerp, Belgium.

Profile

- Preferably you have a degree in IT or an engineering field and already several years of experience in cloud developing, specifically working on Google Cloud
- Besides being a full stack cloud developer, you have previous experience working with Terraform, Kubernetes and Docker
- You enjoy working independently and without micromanagement
- And lastly you're able to coach cloud engineers about the technologies in use

Offer

- A salary package based on your level of experience and adapted to your needs
- The option to work fully remote as long within an international team of high level IT experts so you'll be able to be your own boss
- A fun, modern office environment based in Antwerp, in case you want to enjoy the free lunches
- The opportunity to grow and further develop yourself as you're surrounded by experts in their field
- A good joke, recommendations on a good book or a fun group of friends to go have a drink with, you'll find it all here!
